3) APPD LEAD New Council Member Selected

The APPD LEAD Council is excited to announce a new Council member - Richard Mink, MD MACM.

Richard Mink, MD, MACM

Richard is well known to many of us as a Pediatric Critical Care Fellowship Program Director at Harbor - UCLA for over 20 years. He has held national leadership positions on the Council of Pediatric Subspecialties (COPS), initially as a pediatric critical care representative, before serving on the Executive Committee, and recently as Chair of COPS. Richard has served on the Executive Committee Section on Critical Care at the American Academy of Pediatrics, the Education and Training Committee for the American Board of Pediatrics, and Review Committee for Pediatrics at the ACGME. Richard is a member of the APPD LEARN Research Advisory Committee, and helped develop SPIN (Subspecialty Pediatrics Investigator Network) and currently serves as SPIN's first Director. He has demonstrated collaborative medical education scholarship with publications and national platform/workshop presentations focused on pediatric subspecialty education.

We feel that Richard will be an outstanding addition to the Council, bringing his collaboration and experience in graduate medical education leadership, national leadership, national educational workshops/presentations, academic and career mentorship, and educational scholarship mentorship to our team.
