2) APPD Fall Meeting Follow-up

Following a very successful meeting in Arlington this month, we are pleased to share with all members these links to the APPD 2017 Fall Meeting Presentations, Final Program and Photo Slideshow.

3) APPD Share Warehouse

1. What is the APPD Share Warehouse?

APPD Share Warehouse is collaborative project that provides a platform for members to share their contributions with others. APPD Share Warehouse is designed to serve as a platform through which members can receive recognition for their educational work.

2. What types of material can authors submit to the APPD Share Warehouse?

Authors can submit material that fall into the following five categories: Program Administration, Policies, Curriculum, Assessment Tools, and Faculty Development. You can also “tag” key words, such as APPD Task Forces and PEGs.

3. What is the editorial peer review process for acceptance of a submission?

Content that is designated as “peer reviewed” is generalizable to the pediatric learning community - examples include curricula, faculty development or teaching tools, assessments, guidebooks/handbooks, and leadership tools. If you believe your submission warrants peer review, you can select this option on submission. Our editorial group reviews each peer-reviewed item on an individual basis, and submissions will be noted as reviewed. Items such as policies, checklists/agendas, games, and similar materials would likely not be designated as “peer reviewed” but are essential for sharing in this platform.

4. How does an author measure the impact of their submission?

Authors can view usage reports for each of their submission by signing into their APPD account and clicking on “Reports” tab. Usage reports provide details regarding downloads and feedback. Usage reports can accompany an author’s APPD Share Warehouse publication citation within CV packets as mean to support promotion and tenure decisions.

4) APPD Global Health Pediatric Educator Scholarship

Help us provide a scholarship opportunity for pediatric educators in low and middle income countries!

The APPD Global Health Pediatric Educator Scholarship recognizes pediatric educators who demonstrate early leadership in improving pediatric education in low and middle income countries, and provides them with additional career development and/or networking opportunities by inviting them to attend the APPD Annual Spring Meeting. The 2018 recipient(s) will present at the APPD Annual Spring Meeting in Atlanta (travel, conference fees and lodging included – see information below about scholarship funding).

Scholarship Funding: We are delighted to announce that we reached our threshold to invite one global pediatric educator to attend the APPD 2018 Annual Spring Meeting!! Thank you to those who contributed! If you haven't yet - please consider donating so that we may potentially invite TWO awardees again.

To donate online go to: <https://www.appd.org/contributions/index.cfm>
